Loveland Living Planet Aquarium marks 1 Year in Draper

It's been one year since the Loveland Living Planet Aquarium opened its doors in Draper on March 25, 2014. Since then, the Aquarium has welcomed 1.1 million visitors and has claimed the position of the ninth largest aquarium in the nation! Over 40,000 students have explored the Aquarium on field trips and our Education Outreach team has visited nearly 60,000 students in local schools. Our Animal Husbandry team successfully bred endangered Utah fish, raised baby Cardinals, cared for over 30 sharks and opened a new exhibit: the Caimans.

The Aquarium has also been a backdrop for music videos, television shows and photo shoots. And in addition to being a great venue for birthday parties, the new banquet hall - complete with a floor to ceiling window into the shark tank - is perfect for weddings and corporate events.

"We have accomplished so much in the past year and there is a growing demand for additional education programs, exhibits, and immersive experiences," said Aquarium CEO Brent Andersen. "We're excited to continue to inspire our guests to explore, discover and learn about Earth's ecosystems."

The Aquarium is celebrating our first birthday in Draper with cupcakes beginning at 4pm. Guests can also get a tour of our birthday party rooms in Tuki's Island: Play & Party Center. We invite the media to join us for the celebration.
