Scales & Tails annual fundraiser gala dazzles at the Loveland Living Planet Aquarium

The Loveland Living Planet Aquarium is hosting its biggest annual fundraiser on Saturday, November 1. The Scales & Tails gala is James Bond themed this year. There will be an Aston Martin parked on the plaza, a casino, drinks and hors d' oeuvres and a formal dinner. There will also be mermaids in the Journey to South America exhibit, a showing of The Last Reef and a showing of The Great White Shark in the 4D theatre. Tickets were sold for the event, and funds from a silent auction will also benefit the Loveland Living Planet Aquarium.

Debbie Worthen and Sterling Poulsen from KUTV are the Masters of Ceremonies. Dinner begins at 7pm, and dessert will be served throughout the Aquarium at 8pm. The silent auction closes at 8:30pm, and there will be a drawing in the casino for prizes at 9pm.

The Aquarium would like to thank all our generous donors and sponsors for their support. This year the Aquarium is raising funds to expand our education programs. Right now the Aquarium reaches every 4th grade class in the state each year through our outreach programs. We hope to create outreach and field trip programs for every grade: pre-K through 12th in the future. For more information on the event, go to www.thelivingplanet.com/007.
