

Symbiosis Crossword Challenge

Use the clues below to find the symbiosis related terms in the puzzle below

For additional clues be sure to watch the Do Animals Need Friends? LLPA Vodcast Episode

Across

- 1 This little red bug eats aphids which protect and benefit plants.
- 5 This little fish with attach itself to a shark's body. They then travel with the shark and feed on the leftover food scraps from the shark's meals.
- 9 This colorful part of some plants attract bees which benefit from the tasty nectar, and bees help the plants reproduce through pollination.
- 10 Type of symbiosis when one organism benefits from the other without harming it.
- 11 These large African birds and gazelles feed next to each other. They both watch for predators and alert each other to danger.

Down

- 2 These little creatures create home sites by attaching themselves to whales. This relationship neither harms nor benefits the whales.
- 3 Type of symbiosis when both organisms benefit mutually from the partnership.
- 4 Name of the fish species that lives in a mutualistic relationship with anemones.
- 6 This type of crab will sometimes attach sea anemones to their shells. The anemone stings predators of the crab and the anemone eats the leftover food from the crab.
- 7 Name of a group of Orcas that live together and help each other survive.
- 8 This species of penguin found living at the Loveland Living Planet Aquarium will give each other rocks as gifts.